"I am grateful to all of you for your confidence in me, and pray God that I may some day be worthy of it. For the present, my earnest and most humble request to all of my friends and well-wishers is that you will make it clearly known in the Managing Committee and in the Association that I am totally unprepared and unwilling to let my name go up. If it goes up, and by some remote chance I am elected, you will place me in the embarrassing position of having to refuse to accept the call of the church."
