Sponsored by
 Kerala State Council for Science,
 Technology & Environment

Dear Sir,

'Man is both creator and molder of his environment which gives him physical, sustenance and affords him the opportunity for intellectual, moral, social and spiritual growth'. Man started his journey towards the environmental corruption by enchanting defense of economic development. The road to economic development has shadowed the human spirit and the repository of natural resources. Consequently the environment is filled with forged substances and terminated 'wastes' and throws a challenge for healthy living of humankind, animals and other living flora and fauna.

Over 1.8 billion tonnes of different waste are generated in each year. With such gigantic quantities of waste being produced, solid waste management is one of the foremost challenges faced by many countries. Inadequate collection, recycling or treatment and uncontrolled disposal of waste in dumps can lead to severe hazards. Organic waste recycling is one of the most efficient, ecofriendly and naturally disposing mechanism of degradable waste materials. Such methods diminishes aftermath of carbon emission by reducing the discharge of greenhouse gases. The proposed seminar, Interschool Project Demonstration/Presentation and Interdepartmental Elocution would be beneficial and serve as a platform for scientific interactions and exchange of views on various fields of Waste Management.

The Post Graduate Department of Botany, Catholicate College, Pathanamthitta is organizing a KSCSTE sponsored one day seminar on 'Solid Waste Management' on 17th of June 2016 at Mar Clemis Seminar Hall. All Kerala Project Demonstration & Interdepartmental Elocution competition on Solid Waste Management is to be held on 16th June 2016. It is a matter of great pleasure to invite teachers, researchers, students & NGO members to participate in the programme.
